Multilingualism is the use of more than one language, either by an individual speaker or by a community of speakers. It is believed that multilingual speakers outnumber monolingual speakers in the world's population. More than half of all Europeans claim to speak at least one language other than their mother tongue; but many read and write in one language.

A polyglot is a person with a command of many languages. A polyglot may also be called multilingual, although that term is used for communities as well as individuals.. Richard Hudson, professor emeritus of linguistics at University College London, coined the term "hyperpolyglot" for "people who know dozens of languages well". Other scholars apply the label to speakers of even more languages ...
