In the English language, capitalization is used for names by which a god is known, including 'God'. Consequently, the capitalized form of god is not used for multiple gods or when used to refer to the generic idea of a deity. The English word God and its counterparts in other languages are normally used for any and all conceptions and, in spite of significant differences between religions, the ...

I agree with you Darryl. Some of Nee's books have copyrights on them still. The disciples of Witness Lee have a website called, Living Streams Ministries, have most of his works online in HTML format. For the books I have on my website, I copied them from the HTML then cross referenced with my print copies before making them PDF format.
