Pinocchio - Short Stories

So Pinocchio planted the coins and went to sleep under the tree. The cat and fox tied Pinocchio to the tree, took the coins and ran away. A kind fairy, dressed in blue, set Pinocchio free. Pinocchio began making up a story to tell the Blue fairy. Then a strange thing happened. Pinocchio's nose began to grow longer and longer.

What is a summary of the short story 'Pinocchio'? - Quora

To be honest, Pinocchio is the most insufferable, ungrateful, and gullible brat I've seen so far in children's literature. Poor Geppetto has to sit at home, while the boy runs around and gives up to temptations. All the lies build up, and each time Pinocchio's nose grows longer. Not too convinced on this one.
