In anthropology, privilege is a special right, advantage, or immunity granted or available only to a particular person or group. In sociology, privilege is the perceived rights or advantages that are assumed to be available only to a particular person or group of people. The term is commonly used in the context of social inequality, particularly in regard to age, disability, ethnic or racial ...

There is a phrase that floats around college campuses, Princeton being no exception, that threatens to strike down opinions without regard for their merits, but rather solely on the basis of the person that voiced them. â€œCheck your privilege,â€• the saying goes, and I have been reprimanded by it several times this year. The phrase,â€

Where does the statistics of 85% who buy, sell, or use drugs are white but 75% of people in jail for drug crimes are black come from? The 75% statistic is easy and seems disproportionate to the ratio of blacks and whites in society, but the 85% statistic purports to claim a knowledge of all drug activity that occurs in the U.S.
